Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133).
- Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments, see regarding claim 39, lines 20-30 of page 26; regarding claim 40, lines 18-27 of page 27; regarding claim 41, lines 8-13 of page 28; regarding claim 42, lines 25-31 of page 28 and lines 1-4 of page 29; regarding claim 66, lines 13-22 of page 30; regarding claim 68, lines 27-31 of page 31; regarding claim 70, lines 19-31 of page 32 and lines 1-3 of page 33; regarding claim 74, lines 16-18 of page 33 filed November 14, 2003, with respect to claims 1-89 have been fully considered and are persuasive. The rejection/objections of August 26, 2003 has been withdrawn.

Specification

1. The abstract of the disclosure is objected to because it contains more than 150 words. The abstract should contain 150 words or less. Correction is required. See MPEP § 608.01(b).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

((e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

Claims 90 and 91 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Ryu et al. (5,947,075). Ryu et al. discloses an internal combustion engine, comprising a crankshaft; a crank chamber (23) accommodating said crankshaft; an oil reservoir arranged adjacent to the crank chamber and containing engine oil; and a communicating channel having a flow resistance between the crank chamber and the oil reservoir (22); wherein the crank chamber and the oil reservoir are in communication with each other by way of the communicating channel, so that the flow resistance in the communicating channel causes a pressure in the oil reservoir (22) to change with a delay with respect to a change of a pressure in the crank chamber, a pressure difference between the crank chamber and the oil reservoir causing a fluid flow through the communicating channel between the crank chamber and the oil reservoir. (See Figure 2)

Regarding claim 91, wherein the crank chamber and the oil reservoir (22) are separated from each other by a partition wall, and the communicating channel having the flow resistance is a small hole (46) formed in the partition wall.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 1-89 and 92-96 are allowed.

Conclusion

4. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
